

Who is eligible for this opportunity?

Contemporary artists working anywhere in the world, at any stage of their career are invited to apply. Original artworks should be submitted with a commentary indicating the response inspired by the brief.

Artworks must be available for potential sale (if applicable).

When is the deadline?

The deadline is on Friday 30 April 2021, midnight (BST)

How many works can I submit?

Individual artists and project groups can submit up to three artworks.

If your works exceed the size of two square meters please contact us before participating. Artists are responsible for organising and funding the shipping, including returns.

When is the delivery date?

Delivery date will be communicated to artists at time of acceptance for each exhibition.

When do I need to collect my work?

Works can be collected at the closure of the events.

If artworks are sold, delivery costs are responsibility of the artist.

How much does it cost?

There is a unique processing fee for both shows as:

£15 per artist for up to three artworks.

£30 per collaborative project for up to three artworks.

We have halved the submission fee in response to the challenging times artists are facing, but felt it was required to ensure standards of submissions. Fees are not refundable.

Are there payments to artists?

Artworks should be available for sale (if applicable). A 25% commission is applied to the final sale of artworks.

Is there a private view / opening?

Yes, all artists will be invited to participate at the private view.

Does the location have disable access?

Yes

Do I need to be present?

Artists will be invited to the opening celebrations and are welcome to participate to all events for networking opportunities.

How do you decide on proposals?

A jury of 2 high-profile personalities from the artistic environment will select up to 50 shortlisted works that responded closely to the theme of the event and for their originality and technical skills.

They will also present the Island2IslandArt prize at the opening of the exhibition.

What happens if my proposal is chosen?

Successful proposals will be notified by May 31st, 2021 with more information on the full event program. An individual terms and conditions document will be sent for formal acceptance.
